

BDBF boosts its employment law practice with new associate hire

BDBF is delighted to announce the recent appointment of Abdullah Ahmed, who joins us from Linklaters and has experience across the board in the employment field, but with a special focus in undertaking fact-finding investigations into alleged misconduct in the workplace. Abdullah has a particular interest in the DEI sphere, including DEI policies and positive action.

Abdullah's appointment brings the firm's headcount to six partners and 13 associates, in addition to its 7-strong practice team.

The top-ranked Employment Law firm's ability to attract high calibre talent is testament to the quality of its client base, its stellar track record in litigation, the complex and interesting work the team does, and the collaborative approach it fosters.

BDBF has been top ranked by the leading independent directories for acting for senior executives for the last ten years consecutively. BDBF also has a growing practice acting for employers on their high stakes and high value employment work.

Gareth Brahams, Managing Partner of BDBF said, "We are delighted to bring Abdullah on board. Abdullah is following a well-trodden path for BDBF lawyers out of the magic circle and US firms to our door."

Abdullah Ahmed said, "I am thrilled to be joining BDBF and continuing my employment law journey with this incredible team. I am looking forward to getting involved with the firm's market-leading work representing Senior Executives and learning from the very best!"

