

New associate hire further boosts BDBF's employment law practice

BDBF is delighted to announce the appointment of Emma Burroughs, who joins the firm from Collyer Bristow LLP. Emma's appointment brings the firm's headcount to six partners and 13 other lawyers, in addition to its seven-strong practice team.

The top-ranked employment law firm's ability to attract high calibre talent is testament to the quality of its client base, its stellar track record in litigation, the complex and interesting work the team does, and the collaborative approach it fosters.

BDBF has been top ranked by the leading independent directories for acting for senior executives for the last ten years consecutively. BDBF also has a growing practice acting for employers on their high stakes and high value employment work.

Gareth Brahams, Managing Partner of BDBF said, "I am delighted to welcome Emma to our market-leading team, and look forward to her helping us to continue to achieve career and reputation-saving outcomes for individual clients as well as serving our growing base of employer clients."

Emma Burroughs said, "I am absolutely thrilled to be joining BDBF and to join a team of lawyers who are leaders in their field. I can't wait to get involved in the interesting and important work that the firm does and to assist its great clients."

