Cerys Williams joins BDBF as a Partner in this leading employment law boutique firm, based in the City of London.

Cerys has a wealth of domestic and international experience and was formerly employment law counsel at King & Wood Mallesons, and a partner and head of employment at Fasken Martineau.

Williams brings with her 17 years of expertise in the technology, financial services, professional services and natural resources sectors, advising businesses and senior executives on contentious and non-contentious employment law.

A key appointment to the excellent 4-strong partner team that has led the firm to its top tier status acting for senior executives, Cerys joins to add resilience to the partnership and to strengthen the firm's existing SME and entrepreneurial businesses employment law practice.

Gareth Brahams, Managing Partner of BDBF said, "We are excited that Cerys has joined as a partner, bringing her knowledge, broad range of experience and vision to grow BDBF's employer side practice and to solidify BDBF as a market leading, go-to employment law firm for SMEs as well as senior executives".

Cerys said, "I am delighted to join BDBF as a partner. The firm has an outstanding reputation and I look forward to harvesting new opportunities and developing the growing employer side of this fantastic employment law practice."
